Conference Overview

ICOPH 2019 will be an innovative and informative International Conference reflecting the direction of Public Health while offering a wide range of diversions to participants of all backgrounds. Leading academicians, medical students, clinicians, public health professionals, health care specialists, health care workers, health economists, eminent researchers, scientists, health workers, policy makers, social workers and other related professionals are welcome to share their knowledge and experiences in the field of Public Health.

Call for Papers

The 5th International Conference on Public Health 2019 (ICOPH 2019) invites Leading academicians, medical students, clinicians, public health professionals, health care specialists, health care workers, health economists, researchers, scientists, health workers, policymakers, social workers, and other related professionals to send their abstracts for the conference. The conference will be held from 10th – 12th July 2019 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia under the theme “Promoting Global Health Equity towards a Sustainable Future”.

The pursuit of health equity has become a worldwide public health objective. Health Equity exists when individuals have equal opportunities to be healthy. The ability to be healthy is often associated with determinants such as social position, race, ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual identity, or disability. Health inequities are caused by the uneven distribution of social determinants of health, such as education, housing, and the neighborhood environment. While striving to improve health outcomes for all population groups, the pursuit of health equity seeks to reduce the excess burden of ill health among socially and economically disadvantaged populations.

Program Highlights

The 5th International Conference on Public Health 2019 (ICOPH 2019) is designed with the objective of not only serving as a platform for participants to present their research paper but is a platform that is considered to be a knowledge hub together with special features that is aimed at enhancing the knowledge with a purpose of developing the career of the participants attending the Conference. The featured events of ICOPH 2019 are as follows;

Panel Discussion on Global Health Equity

Health equity has garnered much attention in recent years and yet there is little consensus on its evaluation. Equity is not the same as equality. To equalize opportunities, those with worse health and fewer resources need more efforts expended to improve their health. This intensive discussion is aimed at creating a powerful and inspiring vision of health equity and making a clear strategic commitment to reducing health disparities.

Panelists with diverse perspectives and backgrounds will share how to reduce inequitable access to healthcare, target critical barriers and disadvantaged communities, and encourage innovation and system transformation to enhance equity.

Panel Discussion on Tobacco Use and Tobacco Control

One of the biggest problems facing public health nowadays is tobacco use. Consequently, child and adolescent tobacco users are a group at risk for the negative health outcomes associated with tobacco use, including becoming regular users as adults. Health care settings provide an opportunity to reach children and adolescents who are at risk of initiating tobacco use as well as those who have already begun experimenting with, or are regular users of, tobacco products.
Panel Discussion on Improving the Quality of Maternal Health

In improving the quality of maternal health, reducing maternal mortality and achieving universal access to reproductive health are two most prominent targets of Sustainable Development Goals in the years to come. The reason, most women die during pregnancy or childbirth can be avoided as the necessary medical interventions exist and are well known. The key obstacle is pregnant women’s lack of access to quality care before, during and after childbirth. According to World Health Organization Worldwide about 10% of pregnant women and 13% of women who have just given birth experience a mental disorder, primarily depression. In developing countries this is even higher, i.e. 15.6% during pregnancy and 19.8% after childbirth. In severe cases mothers’ suffering might be so severe that they may even commit suicide. In addition, the affected mothers cannot function properly. As a result, the children’s growth and development may be negatively affected as well. Maternal mental disorders are treatable. Effective interventions can be delivered even by well-trained non-specialist health providers.

Workshop on Effective Resume Writing

Academic CVs differ from the CVs typically used by non-academics in industry, since it is required to present research, various publications and awarded funding in addition to the various other items contained in a non-academic CV. This workshop provides advice and tips on how best to write a CV for the academic field.

Conference Chair Workshop

A workshop will be arranged by the Conference Chair to discuss on the outcomes and get feedback of the Conference. Moreover, the plans to be executed when organizing for ICOPH 2020 will be discussed during the workshop providing an opportunity for participants to share their views and voice their suggestions in terms of the conference theme, venue, dates, featured events and any other applicable areas. The workshop will provide an insight to deliver the future conferences in fruitful way with the outputs received by Conference Chair, Participants and Organizers.
Workshop on Strategic Academic Career Planning

Developing a career as a researcher can mean working hard which may include presenting papers or publishing their hardly done research efforts in conferences. Through career planning workshop we want to help researchers who have just started a new research position or are nearing the end of their research efforts or somewhere in between to build an academic career that can contribute to the creation of new knowledge for the advancement of the discipline. The goal of the workshop is to provide guidance on how to approach the development of a strategic funding plan in the individual research setting.

This workshop will support researchers to work out next steps and plan future within or beyond academia. We invite participants to consider how their research passions and interests align with the University’s areas of strength, what formal University structures exist for acknowledging, resourcing and supporting areas of strength and how their contribution fits with the overall University research plan.

Workshop on Scholarly Publications

Dissemination of research findings is an essential part of the scientific research process. Hence, it is of utmost importance for a researcher who is writing a full paper with the aim of publishing in a reputable journal or in a reputable proceeding. Furthermore, getting a paper published in a reputable peer-reviewed journal or proceeding is an important milestone for researchers.

Through the publication workshop we intend to disseminate knowledge on writing scientific papers and scholarly publications to assist future researchers. All conference participants are welcome to participate in this workshop.
